

Assembly Bill No. 774

CHAPTER 72

An act to amend Section 46144 of the Education Code, relating to vocational education.

[Approved by Governor July 21, 2003. Filed with
Secretary of State July 21, 2003.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 774, Wiggins. Vocational Education.

Existing law requires the minimum day in specified vocational education programs to consist of 4 periods totaling at least 180 minutes in duration.

This bill would additionally provide that for a pupil who attends a school, as specified, in which the regularly scheduled period is greater than 60 minutes in length, the minimum day is one or more periods totaling at least 180 minutes in duration.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 46144 of the Education Code is amended to read:

46144. The minimum day in a special day or a Saturday vocational training program and for a pupil enrolled in a work experience education program approved under Article 7 (commencing with Section 51760) of Chapter 5 of Part 28, except for a pupil enrolled in a continuation school or class pursuant to Section 48402, is four periods totaling at least 180 minutes in duration, except that for a pupil in an approved work experience program who attends a school, other than a continuation school or class, in which the regularly scheduled period is greater than 60 minutes in length, the minimum day is one or more periods totaling at least 180 minutes in duration.
